We can do better than this . . .

Can't we?

Yes We Can!

These five stages reflect a progression from lower-order to higher-order learning

And towards

‘seeking meaning’ through interpretation, critical analysis and the application of knowledge.

Quest

Take a look at the 12 locations marked on the map below and see if you can identify the odd one out. When you've worked it out, please post your answer on the Quest forum and explain what links the other 11 locations. Next, pick one of the locations and write a sentence or two outlining its significance.

Think

What other writers that you are familiar with have made a contribution to the creation of Irish identity? Please use the Think forum to explain what their contribution has been.

Quiz

Having worked your way through the material in this session, it's now time to see what you remember. This quiz has 20 multiple-choice questions. You will receive 5 points for each correct answer. The pass mark is set at 40% and you will have one attempt only.
Click here to open the quiz. Good luck!
