 - ✓ Having trained staff in e-learning field
 - ✓ E-library
 - ✓ Financial resources

CONCLUSION

- If all these conditions are met, distance learning can be a good teaching tool. It also has the advantage to adequately meet the individual needs of the learner, allowing he/her to keep pace and choose the moments when he/her wishes to make. However, if these conditions are not met, the learning can be considered as a "gadget" giving the illusion that it is enough to click a mouse to learn.

THANK YOU
